Giggle of the Month

Baby Bruno was sitting in his grandmother's kitchen, watching her prepare the Thanksgiving meal. "What are you doing?" Bruno asked. "Oh, I'm just stuffing the turkey," his grandmother replied. "That's cool!" Bruno said. "Are you going to hang it next to the deer?"

Trivia of the Month

If we were to walk in the woods and a spring appeared just when we became thirsty, we would call it a miracle. And if on a second walk, if we became thirsty at just that point again, and again the spring appeared, we would remark on the coincidence. But if that spring were there always, we would take it for granted and cease to notice it. Yet is that not more miraculous still?

- Baal Shem Tov

The Universal Mind contains all knowledge. It is the potential ultimate of all things. To it, all things are possible.

~Ernest Holmes~

In every place, in every moment, God is all there is.

This being so, in every place and in every moment, all that I see is divine, and all that I see is connected to everything else.

Wherever I am in my life, I remember this eternal truth. I regard other people as they truly are, and I regard myself as I truly am.

I live my life, in this world, knowing that everything is One, everything is connected, and wherever I am, I'm standing on holy ground. Naturally, I live mindfully and compassionately.

I bring a conscious awareness of the blazing divinity that is everywhere present to all that I do, and nothing is ever the same.

And so it is.
